STATEMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 2016(b)

The undersigned, pursuant to Rule 2016(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, states that the compensation paid or promised by the debtor(s), to the undersigned, is as follows:

For legal services rendered, the debtor(s) has agreed to retain the undersigned counsel on a flat fee of $4925.00 plus filing fee and all credit counseling.

Prior to the filing of this statement, the undersigned counsel has received on behalf of the debtor(s) the sum of $1487.00 towards fee plus the $313.00 for the filing fee. The remaining balance of $3438.00 shall be paid through the plan. Elects 4B fee agreement.

The filing fee has been paid.

The services rendered or to be rendered include the following:

(a) Analysis of the financial situation, and rendering of advice and assistance to the client in determining whether to file a petition under title 11, United States Code.

(b) Review and amend the petition, schedules of assets and liabilities, and statement of affairs.

(c) Representation of the client for Motion for Relief from Stay.

(d) Advising the of the client regarding requests for information and documents made by the trustee and creditors.

(e) Representation of client for the duration of the Chapter 13 Plan.

Under the terms of the fee agreement, counsel hereby agrees to represent the debtor(s) for the duration of the bankruptcy proceeding. With the exception of adversary proceedings and U.S. Trustee audits, for which separate arrangements may be made, counsel must represent their client in all matters in the bankruptcy case as long as counsel is counsel of record. This includes defending motions, including motions for relief from stay, and bringing objections to claims and prosecuting motions on behalf of debtor. After the initial engagement, counsel may not demand payments from the debtor as a precondition to doing work. Counsel must remain as counsel of record until the entry of a court order allowing the withdrawal of appearance, or until the case is dismissed or closed.

The undersigned further states that the source of monies paid by the debtor(s) to the undersigned was and is, earnings, wages and compensation for services performed, and was paid by the debtor(s).

Respectfully submitted,
